

Guess How Much I Love You: The Pop-Up Edition - Sam McBratney

Published by Walker Books, RRP 32.99.

For all the parents who have yet to discover this much-loved picture book, it is reprinted with pop-up features and movable parts. Sturdy card pages help the moving sections to withstand repeated use by small fingers. The hardback cover adds to the durability of this beautiful edition.

The timeless tale is told in a simple storyline with a big message. At bedtime, Little Nutbrown Hare asks Big Nutbrown Hare to, "Guess how much I love you."

Big Nutbrown Hare replies, "Oh, I don't think I could guess that."

They begin a game of finding extravagant ways to describe how much they love each other. But how do you measure love? Of course, they are both winners in the giving and receiving of affection.

Illustrator Anita Jeram maintains a close-up focus on the characters that highlights the vulnerability of Little Nutbrown Hare and the protective nature of Big Nutbrown Hare. Tawny shades add warmth to the forest greens. The rural setting allows the expansion of the story to match the surrounding countryside.

As night falls, the landscape softens and colours deepen.

A perfect bedtime story to send a child to sleep secure in parental love.
