Oh Baby! A to Z

Published by Black Dog Books, RRP $18.99

From the superb opening pages showing a furry anteater introducing her youngster to ants to the final page of a mother zebra watching over her young one, this is a celebration of baby animals.

The close-up colour photographs of wide-eyed chicks, cubs and pups have instant appeal for young readers. Even the spiky hedgehog and big-eared piglet are cute. The small creatures are shown exploring their new world. The adventurous orang-utan swings from a rope while a baby elephant hurries along with its ears flapping.

Supportive text allows readers to discover the individuality of each animal. Excellent book design with good use of white space and clear typeface makes this an inviting book to share.
