

Tea with Miss Tilly - Justine Payen

Published by HarperCollins, RRP $19.99

After school visits to Miss Tilly are a treat, and not just for her delicious afternoon tea. She delights her young guest with imaginative stories that paint pictures in her mind of faraway countries.

Magical journeys and mythical places fill the pages of this charming picture book. Who knows where the intrepid travellers might find themselves?

Award-winning illustrator Philip Webb packs excitement and humour into each destination. Flying carpets, steam trains, dragons and aliens tumble from the pages. There's even a teapot submarine and a fearless cat. Warm colours and smiling faces enhance the pleasure of the adventures shared with Miss Tilly.

Perfect to read with tired, after-school children while sharing a snack and exploring the splendid illustrations.
