The Ice Age Continental Drift Creativity Book by Emily Stead

Publisher: Walker Books

RRP $22.99

Young people who enjoy the Ice Age movies will become absorbed in the imaginative activities in this generous-sized book.

Characters from the four Ice Age movies feature in all the art and craft projects, puzzles, games, stencils and stickers. There's an amazing number of things to make and do with clear instructions to follow for satisfying results.

One of the many fun activities is a question and answer test to discover which of the Ice Age heroes you are most like. There are card and board games, mammoth cut-out models, cave art, a Scrat mask, dotty pirates and Dino Dance party suggestions. The pages are well-illustrated with sketches and colourful scenes from the movies.

It's a quality publication with durable paper suitable for the interactive projects. There's a huge selection of reusable stickers that bring the Ice Age cast to life. The end pages fold-out to make two spectacular locations from the movies with plenty of space to add the stickers.

Stock up on pencils, colouring pens, glue, scissors, dice and counters. Then chill out with the Ice Age team.
