

Shaun the Sheep Movie: Sheep on Set, an activity book

Publisher: Walker Entertainment / Aardman

RRP $11.99

Young fans of Shaun the Sheep and the characters from Mossy Bottom Farm will enjoy the projects included in this activity book.

The creative challenges are based on movie-related activities such as creating storyboards for parts of the film, making a flick book that has Bitzer jumping for a bone, filling in speech bubbles of the characters' thoughts, drawing the background for a city scene, and creating an advertising poster.

There are plenty of language activities centred on the movie such as a screenplay quiz, crosswords, a word find, a mixed-up cast list, taking part in a radio interview, completing a funny review, and writing an opening for a sequel to the movie.

The brightly illustrated book includes many clips from the movie. A nice touch is the cardboard activity that can be cut from the back cover to lock some of the characters behind bars.

Visit the website for more activities to keep youngsters amused.
