

What's the time, DINOSAUR? Written and illustrated by Ruth Paul

Publisher: Scholastic New Zealand

RRP $19.00

Ruth Paul has linked the seemingly timeless fascination with dinosaurs to that old favourite, What's the time, Mr Wolf?

Her full colour double page illustrations show the many different dinosaurs playing the game, taunting the constantly changing leader. In this way, children meet Tyrannosaur (Mr Rex), Stegosaur, Triceratops and Ankylosaur as the others follow them through the day till it's "time to dino-snore".

A fun bedtime story that will entrance all little ones.
